>>Read Psalm 118

1. What jumps out at you as significant, challenging, or confusing?
2. What is this Psalm asking us to do and to believe?
3. What does this passage teach us about God?
4. If you really believed verses 6-9, would anything change about your life?
5. Focus on verses 14-16 and verses 26-29. What kind of worship should we have when we gather together as a community? How can we help each other to embody this more?
6. How does this passage point us to Jesus?
7. G.K. Chesterton said "The aim of life is appreciation: there is no sense in not appreciating things; and there is no sense in having more of them if you have less appreciation of them." How do you think you can grow in expressing gratitude to God? to others?
