2. Read Isaiah 43:25 and Psalm 130:3-4. Worldly “forgiveness” is often based on feelings, forgiving and forgetting, or excusing. How is this understanding of forgiveness different from a biblical view of forgiveness.
3. The process of forgiveness can be a painful one, especially if the offense is serious. If you are able to do so discreetly, please share about a situation in which you forgave someone or in which you were forgiven. How did this ultimately impact the relationship?
4. What practical steps can you take to cultivate an attitude of forgiveness? Close your discussion time by praying for one another.
