(Ephesians 2:19-22)

I LOVE YOUR KINGDOM, LORD

I love your Kingdom, Lord,
The house where you reside,
The people purchased with your blood,
When on the cross you died.

TOGETHER

I love your bride, O Lord,
For she is your delight,
No stain of sin remains on her,
You've dressed her all in white.

TOGETHER

For your church my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend,
To her my cares and toils be given,
Until my life shall end.

TOGETHER

I love your church, O God,
Wherever she may be,
For what is dear to you, O Lord,
Is also dear to me.

TOGETHER

I love your church, O Lord,
The saints you've given me,
To live with and to humbly serve,
And pray for faithfully.

Ephesians 2:19-22

So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, 20 built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, 21 in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. 22 In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

“If, like Paul, we keep before us the vision of God’s new society as his family, his dwelling place and his instrument in the world, then we shall be constantly seeking to make our church’s worship more authentic, its fellowship more caring and its outreach more compassionate.”

~John Stott
