

GATHERING
(Hebrews 10:19-25)

TOGETHER

Hebrews 10:19-25

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, 20 by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, 21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God, 22 let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, 25 not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

TOGETHER

Ephesians 2:21-22

. . . in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. 22
In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

TOGETHER

Hebrews 12:22-24

But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, 23 and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, 24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Matthew 15:8

This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me . . .

TOGETHER

Hebrews 10:24, 25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, 25 . . . but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

1 Corinthians 14:26

When you come together . . . Let all things be done for building up.

“We must never, therefore, let our Sundays become mere routine engagements; in that attitude of mind, we shall trifle them away by a humdrum formality. Every Sunday is meant to be a great day, and we should approach it expectantly, in full awareness of this.”
