
The Messianic Priest-King
Psalm 110
December 15, 2013

Introduction

- I. The supreme reign of Christ. Psalm 110:1; Acts 2:33–35

- II. The spiritual reign of Christ. Psalm 110:2–3; 2 Corinthians 10:3–5

- III. A Priest in the order of Melchizedek. Psalm 110:4
 - A. Melchizedek united the role of priest and king into one office. Genesis 14:18–20
 - B. Melchizedek symbolizes an eternal priesthood. Hebrews 7:3
 - C. This becomes an anchor for the soul. Hebrews 6:19–20

- IV. The victorious reign of Christ. Psalm 110:5–7; 1 Corinthians 15:24–25

Questions for reflection:

- Why do you think Psalm 110 was so important to the New Testament church?
 - How does the reign of Christ manifest itself in the present?
 - If Christ has “all authority in heaven and on earth,” how do we account for suffering and evil in the world?
 - How is the priesthood of Christ a source of continuing comfort for believers?
