2 Cor. 5:14-17

For Christ's love compels us, since we have reached this conclusion: If One died for all, then all died. And He died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves,

2 Cor. 5:14-17

but for the One who died for them and was raised. From now on, then, we do not know anyone in a purely human way. Even if we have known Christ in a purely human way,

2 Cor. 5:14-17

yet now we no longer know Him in this way. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away, and look, new things have come.

2 Cor. 5:14-17

Now Saul was still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord. He went to the high priest.

Acts 9:1

Immediately he began proclaiming Jesus in the synagogues: “He is the Son of God.” All who heard him were astounded and said,

Acts 9:20-21

“Isn’t this the man in Jerusalem who was causing havoc for those who called on this name and came here for the purpose of taking them as prisoners to the chief of priests?”

Acts 9:20-21

new identity

Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, certain that God is appealing through us. We plead on Christ's behalf,
"Be reconciled to God."

2 Cor. 5:20

new perspective

For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body ruled by sin might be rendered powerless so that we may no longer be enslaved to sin, since a person who has died is freed from sin.
