

ORDINATION SERVICE

Aron Osborne
April 23, 2017

I. What Is An Ordination? Why Is It Important?

“The saying is trustworthy: If anyone aspires to the office of overseer, he desires a noble task. Therefore an overseer must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, sober-minded, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not a drunkard, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. He must manage his own household well, with all dignity keeping his children submissive, for if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he care for God's church?

~ 1 Timothy 3:1-6

He must not be a recent convert, or he may become puffed up with conceit and fall into the condemnation of the devil.”

~ 1 Timothy 3:1-6

A. A noble task.

A. A noble task.

B. A noble life!

“Winston Churchill once attended a formal banquet in London, where the dignitaries were asked the question, “If you could not be who you are, who would you like to be?” Naturally everyone was curious as to what Churchill, who was who I am, I would most like to be” – and here he paused to take his wife’s hand - Lady Churchill’s Second

Husband.”
