SERMON NOTES

Today's Text: Matt. 6:19-24

Oct. 1, 2017

I. The Command (v. 19-20)

Application:

II. The Rationale (v. 21)

III. The Illustration (v. 22-23)

Questions to consider:

IV. The Point (v. 24)

- What money or possession do I currently have or desire that I don't think I can live without?
- What do I spend my greatest energy and time pursuing?
- When's the last time I had a healthy, godly conversation on what the Bible says about money with a friend?
- Is my standard of living growing faster than my standard of giving?
- Which do I enjoy most: giving, saving, or spending?
- Am I content with God and what He's given me?

Sermon in a Sentence:

Christians treasure Christ by investing eternally.

Matt. 6:19-24

Multiply Week 3: Jesus gives us hearts that treasure Him

Did you have a prized treasure as a kid? What was it and why did you love it?

Have you invested in any earthly possession that has literally been eaten by moths, destroyed by rust, or stolen by thieves?

It's been said that you can identify a person's treasure by how they spend their time and their money. What does your recent time and money investment indicate you treasure?

Matthew 6:24 can lead us to make all sorts of excuses and disclaimers for our behavior. Do you believe Jesus' statement at face value? If so, how does that affect our relationship with our money and possessions.

How can you invest in heavenly treasure this week?
