2 Cor. 8:1-9

Multiply Week 4: Jesus gives us Hearts of Grace

Have you ever had to beg someone to let you give them something?
Explain.

In 2 Cor. 8:2, Paul links the ingredients of affliction, joy, and poverty with a wealth of generosity. What sort of donation would you have expected from a church with those ingredients? What did Paul expect?

Does Mill Creek have any ingredients in common with the church of Macedonia?

If Macedonians could make a donation despite their affliction and poverty, what sort of donation would you expect a church like Mill Creek could contribute? What sort of contribution might Paul have expected from a church like ours?

How can this text help us cultivate a heart of grace?
