

Introduction to the Psalms

Why Study the Psalms?

1. We need the “Big-God-Worship” of the Psalms to challenge the shallowness in our thinking about God and His worship.
2. We need the Psalms sanctifying affect on the whole of our hearts.
3. We need their realistic response to suffering.
4. We need the gospel undertones of the Psalms.
5. We need their corporate emphasis to combat the self-centeredness and individualism of our day.
