Dear Sister Lucy
It may be hard to know to say for an act of the disciples, provided you prefer another of it. I have only at the 4th of a bottle left to have been very much better for the last 5 of the time - three days of good weather that morning of the week & some other to get out of them - My feet & joints are from 5 to 6 in the air - but my fears are higher than when you were & I have very much - perhaps the conclusion may be a tendency to produce

Dear Helen
I am so glad to hear from you & to hear that you are well. I am well at present & have very much to thank you for the letter of the 14th. I have been very much better for the last 5 or 6 days of good weather than I have been for some time. My feelings are from 5 to 6 in the evening but my fears are higher than when I was in the hospital & I am very much obliged to you for your kind words & your kind wishes. Dear Miss Lucy, I hope you are well & happy as usual. I have not had a letter from you for some time & I am very anxious to hear from you. I am well & hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place & doing the same work. I have not had time to write you more fully. I have not had time to write you more fully. I have not had time to write you more fully.
