
Not Slow in Keeping His Promises
2 Peter 3:8–10
December 7, 2014

Introduction

I. God does not reckon time the way we do. 2 Peter 3:8, Psalm 90:4

II. Christ's delay is a mark of God's patience. 2 Peter 3:9

III. What does it mean that God is "not wishing that any should perish...?"

IV. When He comes, it will be without warning! 2 Peter 3:10, Matthew 24:42–44

Questions for Reflection:

- How important is the second coming of Christ to believers today? How important should it be?
- What reason does Peter give for the seeming delay of Christ's return?
- What does this passage tell us about God?
- Given that Christ could return at any time, how should we then live?
