Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, 11

CENTRAL TRUTH: Change is a beautiful and purposeful part of God’s design for life.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, 11

- 1 There is a time for everything,
and a season for every activity under the heavens:
- 2 a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
- 3 a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
- 4 a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
- 5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
- 6 a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
- 7 a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
- 8 a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end.

Group questions:

The YNCC Small Group ministry has prepared the following questions to help in the processing of the news and create guided conversations within your community. We know many questions will be asked, and the pastor overseeing your groups will come alongside of you and be there for you in the coming days and weeks.

1. How are you feeling after the news of Pastor Michael’s resignation?
2. Spend some time sharing some memories you have of Pastor Michael.
 - a. What is something he has said or done, directly or indirectly that has impacted your life in a positive way?
3. What can your group do to honor, show love and care to Pastor Michael and his family? (One example is to write a card to Pastor Michael sharing your answer to question #2a.)
4. Please pray for Pastor Michael, his family, and our church. How can we come together during this difficult time?
5. What are some immediate questions do you have for YNCC that you would like to email Pastor David (DavidKim@YnccLA.org)?
