

Due to unfortunate technical difficulties on Sunday morning, September 18, recording of video and audio were not possible. We apologize that you are unable to access these resources. John's sermons notes are still available for download.