Colossians
1:15-23

We are rescued into royalty,
to bow our knee to the King and reflect His glory in a life worthy of His Name!

The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. (Colossians 1:15-17)

The Son is the image of the invisible God

“In these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe. The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word.” Hebrews 1:2-3

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made... The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.” John 1:1-3,14

All-of-God in-the-flesh

He is powerful and also personal.

Heir of the Universe

His authority covers my life and me.

Creator of the visible and invisible

I am His workmanship.

Sustainer of the natural and supernatural worlds

He holds me and won't let go.

And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

(1:18-20)

Head of the Church

He is my Chief Shepherd.

Heir of the resurrected

He is my resurrection guarantee.

Reconciler of our broken Universe

Reconciler of our broken Universe

For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. (1:19-20)

He is my reconciliation and hope.

How can I share the Supremacy of Jesus?

1. Pray for open doors and salty speech.

Pray for us, too that God may open a door for our message...Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.” (4:3,6)

2. Compare Jesus – don’t combat.

3. Tell His story of victory through suffering.

4. Live a life worthy of the Lord.

JESUS

All of God in the flesh

Heir of the Universe

Creator of the visible and invisible

Sustainer of the natural & supernatural worlds

Head of the Church

Heir of the Resurrected

Reconciler of our broken Universe

The background is a painting of a forest scene. The upper portion shows several tall, thin trees with green foliage, rendered with visible brushstrokes. The lower portion shows a body of water in shades of blue and teal, which reflects the trees above. The overall style is impressionistic and textured.
