

In God We Trust

Psalm 75

Main Idea: In these times of widespread wrongs, believers must remain focused on God, who promises to judge rightly.

1. Trusting God produces a thankful community that rests confidently in the presence of God (v. 1).

2. Trusting God requires taking God at His Word (vv. 2-5).
 - a. This God is just and He is sovereign.

3. Trusting God produces a community that agrees to wait on Sovereign justice (vv. 6-8).

4. Trusting God requires a personal resolve to render praise to God in the midst of waiting (vv. 9-10).
