

THE POWER OF SILENCE

“When Falsely Accused”

Isaiah 53:7; Mark 14:53-65

Pete Parker, Senior Pastor

God wants to quiet my heart to the power of _____.

The promise of silence

The prophecies of Isaiah 53 reveal the kind of precision about the future that only God could know – _____ years before they occur.

Silence in the midst of gross injustice

The trials of Jesus violated all principles of Jewish law and perpetrated the greatest _____ of justice.

Jesus has been through the Garden agony and He will do the _____ will all the way to the cross.

The power of silence

- Silence challenges me to pay _____ to God’s will.

- Silence can be a _____ of grace.

Conclusion

The cross is not only public proof of what God has already accomplished – it is the proof for what He has promised to accomplish for my _____.

“I believe in the sun – even when it is not shining. I believe in love – even when not feeling it. I believe in God – even when He is _____.”
