TRUTH
Answering Questions People Ask

Key Passages: Colossians 4:6, 1 Peter 3:15

Q: How do I know my prayers are heard and don't just make me feel better or give me good vibes?
(James 5:16, 1 John 5:14, Ephesians 6:18)

1. Prayer changes us more than it changes God's mind
2. Our relationship is enhanced by our communication with God

A: God hears and cares about our prayers, but that does not mean that He always answers the way we would like.

Q: How do I witness to my Mormon relatives?

1. pray for their salvation
2. Don't argue the doctrines of Mormonism or any other cult
3. Make terms very clear
4. Always communicate the key parts of the gospel so that they can know Christ

A: Focus on the gospel which has the power to change their mind and their life

Q: Where does the Bible stand on homosexuality and transgenderism?

1. Homosexuality and transgenderism are sinful behaviors according to the Bible
(1 Corinthians 6:9-10, Deuteronomy 22:5, 1 Corinthians 11:14-15)
2. Sexual confusion in our culture is an attack on God's sovereignty
3. We should always act in love and concern towards those confused about their sexuality

A: Both are considered sin by the Bible yet we should act in love and concern for those who are confused by their sexuality in order to lead them to Jesus and the truth

Q: If homosexuality is a sin, isn't it mean of God to create hermaphrodites?

A: All abnormalities are a result of the sin of Adam's sin. God's character is not in question because of our choices

Q. How do I decide what church to join between good Bible believing churches?

- 1, Make sure it's Bible believing
2. Pray for direction from God
3. Can you easily follow the leaders?
4. Are they responsible and transparent with their finances?
5. Is there a place for you to get involved in ministry?

A: Find out as much as you can, pray and allow God to lead you to a church where you can fulfill God's dream for your life
