1. When was the last time you experienced a "really" God moment? During this experience, you were overwhelmed by both the intensity and the timing of opposition? Share this experience with your group.
2. With respect to your calling to love, worship, and serve the Savior, what is the current focus of opposition in your life?
3. What factors shape your decision to pray and provide financial support to our church's missionaries? What ministries or missionaries do you financially support and why? What factors hinder your prayer and financial support?
4. From your understanding of Scripture and personal experiences, what are the character qualities for those who are refreshing to others?
5. As a result of this month's emphasis on the care of our missionaries, how has God led you to apply what you have been learning?
