

Community Group Study: CommUNITY
Pilgrim Songs - Part 8 | Psalm 133 | week of July 23

GETTING STARTED

- Remember a time and share with the group a time in your life when you were alone (not “lonely,” just “alone”) for an extended period of time. What did that do to you? Where did your mind go?

Read Psalm 133.

DISCUSSION & APPLICATION

- What are some things in life that are good, but not pleasant (e.g., brussel sprouts, surgery, etc.)?

- What are some things in life that are pleasant, but not good (e.g., deep-dish pizza, binge-watching TV, etc.)?

- What do the doctrine of the Trinity and the doctrine of the Image of God have to do with Psalm 133?

- Aren't beards awesome?! Also, what is the significance of the oil on Aaron's beard (133.2)?

- Who is Aaron, and what does he have to do with (comm)unity? What Gospel significance does this have?
- Share with the group a time when you've personally seen beautiful unity happening within the community of a local church.
- Share with the group obstacles that could harm or hinder beautiful unity happening with the community of our church.
- What is the significance of the dew in 133.3? Share a time when you've felt refreshed by experiencing community at Capitol City, or elsewhere.
- How does the gospel free us to be at peace with all men, especially with other Christians?

NEXT STEPS

- Confess ways in which you are excited to promote the (comm)unity of the body of Capitol City, as well as ways you may have hindered it in the past, and repent of those actions.

- Pray as a group and also individually throughout the week, with Christ, the words of John 17.20-23.
